C. WICHER IS INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

Eight Counts Charged
in Report Made Today.

BOARD IS CENSURED

The grand jury summoned to investigate certain charges made against Caretaker Clyde Wicher of the county home, shortly before noon today filed a report of their findings with Judge R. S. Farrand in the circuit court room. Caretaker Clyde Wicher appeared in the court room this afternoon with his attorney, E. H. Brewster, to arrange for the furnishing of bonds in the amount of $1,000 as set by the court.

The report contained one indictment consisting of eight counts charging malfeasance of office, together with a resolution, signed by 22 members of the investigating body. The report is as follows:

State of Illinois )
ss.
Lee County )
In the Circuit Court. April term, A. D. 1919.

To the Honorable Richard S. Farrand, Judge of said Court:

The undersigned, grand jury of the said court, called in special session to investigate the conditions prevailing at the Lee county County Home, in addition to the indictment herewith returned, would respectfully report the following:

We have with diligence and care inquired into the conditions at said county home, and respectfully report that we find a general laxity of business conditions prevailing therein for a long period of time.

We find that the superintendent, Clyde L. Wicher, has given considerable of said county property to his relatives and to members of the county board.

We further find that he has made unauthorized sales of certain of said property.

We further find that certain of the supervisors of said county, to-wit: Messrs. Buckley, Buckaloo, Edwards, McCleary, have at different times purchased different goods at said county farm, all of which is in violation of Section 3, of Chapter 102, of Hurd's Statutes of 1917, of the State of Illinois, which declares such act a misdemeanor; however, we find that each of said purchases were more than eighteen months prior to this report, hence prosecution thereof is barred by the Statute of Limitations of the State of Illinois.

We further find that the said Board of Supervisors has not been sufficiently diligent or careful in inquiring into the conditions prevailing at said County Home and we believe that said conditions could have been discovered had the said board used more care in its inquiries and investigations.

We further find that considerable intoxicating liquor in years past has been taken to said County Home and charged to the county as sundries or otherwise.

We further find that the superintendent has been permitted by the county board to engage in the poultry business at said farm, on his own account, and the evidence before us shows that the feed therefor, or a considerable portion thereof, was furnished by Lee county.

We further find certain acts of ill treatment towards the inmates of said county farm to be established by the evidence, both as regards direct ill treatment, and in the matter of neglect. It appears from the evidence that certain of the aged inmates, who are physically weak, have been forced to do labor and work beyond their strength or ability.

We do further recommend that the county board of Lee county proceed to take prompt and summary action to rectify the conditions at the said county farm, believing that the public interest requires a thorough rectification of conditions at said institution without delay.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

STREET OILING TO START MONDAY MORN

Oiling of streets in Dixon will begin Monday morning. Mayor Mark D. Smith announced this morning, a carload of oil having been received Friday. The city has no oiler as yet, but has arranged for the spreading of the present consignment, streets to be dressed including Peoria Ave., Galena Ave., First street, Assembly park and other north side highways. The city has advertised for a suitable power oiler, and will doubtless purchase one at the expiration of the ten days required by law for advertising for bids.

Too Much Celebration—James Betow was arrested yesterday morning by Officer Winters for discharging a 32 caliber revolver on First street in the business part of the city. He was arraigned before Justice Grover Gehant and fined $25 and costs for this method of celebrating the Fourth.

DIXON ICE MAN WILL BUILD NEW ROCHELLE PLANT

People of That City Donate Site for New Factory.

Manager Frank Sutterlin of the Dixon Distilled Ice company spent yesterday in Rochelle and Chicago, where he was called on important business. Yesterday morning he met with members of the city council at Rochelle, who have been conferring with him for some time in an attempt to have a branch artificial ice plant in their town. The Rochelle council yesterday offered a very suitable building site and other inducement which led to the giving out of a statement this morning by Mr. Sutterlin to the effect that the extension was practically assured. While definite plans are incomplete, Mr. Sutterlin expects to commence work in a very short time on a $40,000 plant in Rochelle, with a capacity of 25 tons daily. This will be operated in connection with the local plant and will serve to relieve a great deal of demand that is now being supplied from here.

Now Helping DeKalb.

DeKalb is at the present securing its entire ice supply from the Dixon plant and other towns are begging for assistance to relieve the shortage this year. With the extension of activities, the Rochelle plant would be able to care for a great deal of the shipping, thus relieving the demand on the Dixon plant.

Mr. Sutterlin stated this morning that the requests for relief from ice shortage are much greater than can be cared for from the Dixon plant. Dixon is receiving almost every pound of its ice supply from this plant at the present time and requests were made this morning by companies in Sterling and Oregon for ice which could not possibly be supplied.

Following his visit with the members of the city council at Rochelle, Mr. Sutterlin proceeded to Chicago to select machinery and equipment for the new plant in Rochelle.

ELEVEN ROUNDS; GAME TO BROWNS

The Brown Shoe company team won a close game from the United Commercial Travelers yesterday afternoon at the Brown Field, the score at the close of the eleventh inning being 11 to 10. The game resembled a batting practice at times and the salesman in the early innings solved Allen's south paw delivery piling up a neat count.

Allen was pulled off the mound early in the game, Lightner taking his place and holding the Travelers until the Browns had over come the gain. The score was tied in the ninth and two extra innings were necessary in order to decide the winner. Margraff, of Sterling twirled the entire eleven innings for the Travelers and pitched good ball.

Washington, July 5.—President Wilson has approved the program for his reception at New York Tuesday. He will land at Hoboken at 2:30 o'clock, cross on the ferry to Manhattan and proceed by automobile to Carnegie Hall, where formal welcome ceremonies will be held.

The president plans to make a brief reply to the welcome by Governor Smith and Mayor Hylan, but the understanding at the white house is that he will not touch on the peace treaty and the league of nations. After the exercises at Carnegie Hall he will start for Washington on a special train, arriving late Tuesday night.

White house officials have not been advised of the president's plans after he arrives here, but the general expectation is that he will present the peace treaty to the senate Wednesday or Thursday. Later he expects to make a "swing around the circuit" speaking for the treaty and the league.

PARDO REGIME IN PERU ENDS WITH COUNTER REVOLT

Leguia, Who Claims to Have Won Election,
Deposes His Foe.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Lima, Peru, Friday, July 4.—Augusto B. Leguia late today assumed office as provisional president of Peru and took up his residence in the government palace as a result of the successful overthrow earlier in the day of President Pardo.

Senor Pardo, his ministers, and a number of high officials of the army and navy are in prison. Pardo being detained in the penitentiary here. Virtually no fighting and no casualties marked the overthrow of the Pardo government. Senor Leguia is supported by virtually all of the army and naval forces in Lima and public opinion here apparently is behind him.

Revolt Is Short One

The revolution began at 3 o'clock this morning with an attack on the palace by two regiments of troops and a force of police. By 6 o'clock President Pardo had been deposed and Senor Leguia was proclaimed provisional president. The movement was similar to that which resulted in the overthrow of President Guillermo Billinghurst on Feb. 4, 1914.

It was announced late today that President Pardo would be placed on trial on charge of having violated the constitution and of having conspired against the institutions of the republic.

The inauguration of Senor Leguia as president, it is said, probably will take place within a month. The provisional president claims that he received 100,000 of the 200,000 votes cast in recent presidential election.

July 4 National Holiday

The fourth of July had been proclaimed as a national holiday by President Pardo. Thousands of persons thronged the streets today cheering for Senor Leguia. A crowd assembled before the government palace and called on Leguia for a speech.

The provisional president, speaking from the balcony of the palace, declared that he intended to organize a strong government on a popular basis and to increase the army and navy to the status they had held during his previous term as president from 1908 to 1912. He said he would defend the principles of justice and right which had triumphed in the great war and would associate Peru without reserve with the cause of the allies. He intended, he said, to extend every facility for the introduction of foreign capital to aid in the development of national resources.

Had to Remove Pardo

Senor Leguia, in a statement to the Associated Press, said he had made every effort to avoid deposing President Pardo by force, but it had become increasingly evident that a conspiracy was afoot to deprive him of the office to which he had been chosen in the recent election. Money, the provisional president said, was used freely in an effort to purchase sufficient votes of members of congress to annul the elections.

Last night Senor Leguia declared he learned of a plot to arrest him and send him into exile, and as a last resort he gave orders to the army chiefs favorable to him to go ahead with their plan to overthrow the Pardo government. Senor Pardo and his ministers, he added, would be dealt with justly. Senor Leguia said he had no personal animosity against any member of the Pardo government.

There are no reports from the provinces concerning the situation there but Senor Leguia and his associates expect no difficulties in that quarter.

The provisional president expects to announce his cabinet within a few hours.

Florence Crowd Is Fired on By Troops

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Florence, Italy, Friday, July 4.—(Delayed.)—Carabiniere fired upon crowds here today. Disorders are increasing and the ransacking of shops is widespread.

Strengthened by rowdies the crowd has abandoned itself to the general sacking of all shops without distinction, destroying what it is unable to carry away. One entire street is flooded with petroleum, gasoline, wine, beer and olive oil.

Wherever the chamber of labor is able to exercise authority, goods are being transported to special warehouses under the red flag, even tram cars being pressed into this service. Large quantities of supplies are being turned over to the municipality in the Piazza signoria, the chief square of the city. Money taken from shops also is being placed in the care of the municipality or the chamber of labor. Thousands of boxes of matches are being distributed free to the crowds.

HINDENBURG OFFERS TO TAKE BLAME FOR GERMAN WAR CRIMES

Says He, Not Emperor, is Responsible for All Commands to Army.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

London, July 5.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, former chief of the German staff, declares that he is responsible for acts of German headquarters since August, 1916, and also the proclamations of former Emperor William concerning the waging of warfare. He up his residence in the government palace as a result of the successful overthrow earlier in the day of President Pardo.

The field marshal arrived in Hanover on Friday, the dispatch states, and telegraphed the following message to President Ebert:

"The signing of the peace treaty gives me occasion for declaring that I am responsible for the decisions and acts of main headquarters since August 29, 1916, and also that all proclamations and orders of his majesty, the emperor and king, concerning the waging of war were issued upon my advice and upon my responsibility. I beg you therefore to inform the German people and the allied governments of this declaration."

The declaration by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg that he was responsible for acts committed by the Germans and for proclamations of the former emperor is the second to be made by a German leader since it was officially announced that the allies proposed to place on trial political and military leaders of Germany for causing the war and for violations of the rules of warfare. The other leader, who assumed responsibility for the acts of former Emperor William was Dr. Theobald Von Bethmann-Hollweg, former German chancellor, who held office at the beginning of the war.

London, July 5.—The German conservative party has issued a proclamation signed by Ernst Von Heydebrand, the party's leader in the reichstag, stating that the party "declares war on the government and intends to use its whole strength to re-establish the monarchy," according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company.

GIANT BIPLANE IS DAMAGED ON FLIGHT TO N. Y.

British Machine Lands in Streets of Small Canadian Town.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Halifax, N. S., July 5.—The giant Handley-Page biplane Atlantic, under the command of Vice Admiral Kerr, which left Harbor Grace, Nf., yesterday enroute to New York or Atlantic City, landed in the streets of Parrsboro at 5:30 o'clock this morning.

The big airplane was forced to descend owing to trouble in landing, was damaged beyond immediate repair. No member of the crew was injured.

Oil Tube Bursts.

Vice Admiral Kerr telephoned to Halifax that everything went well with the biplane until an oil tube burst shortly after 3 o'clock this morning necessitating a descent. The airplane was flown on three engines at a low altitude in an endeavor to select a suitable point to descend. What appeared to be a large open field was finally decided upon for the landing, but in coming down a wire was encountered and the undercarriage of the machine was badly wrecked.

Admiral Kerr stated that he had no immediate plans, for the reason that it would be impossible to repair the machine at Parrsboro. He said the navigating instruments worked well at all times during the night.

U.S. DESTROYERS SENT TO ASSIST BRITISH DIRIGIBLE

Wireless Message From Nova Scotia Calls
for Assistance.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, July 5.—Almost out of fuel after her long run from East Fortune, Scotland, the British dirigible R-34 asked navy department this afternoon whether destroyers were being sent to her assistance. The message was received at 1:30 p. m. and when sent the R-34 still was over Nova Scotia. The message follows:

"Signals strong. Position 45.21 north, 64.00 west. Course southwest true. Running out of fuel after flight from Britain. Please tell me if your destroyers are coming. (Signed) "Commanding officer R-34."

BULLETIN

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington July 5.—Two American destroyers were ordered today to proceed toward the Bay of Fundy, to lend any required assistance to the British dirigible R-34 which reported that she was fighting a head wind over Nova Scotia with her fuel supply getting low.

SENDS MESSAGE FOR HELP

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, July 5.—The British dirigible R-34 has asked the navy department if an American destroyer could meet her at the Bay of Fundy and take her in tow if required.

The message was received at the department at 11 a. m., five minutes after one addressed to the British admiralty reporting that the R-34's supply was getting low. The ship was then flying across Nova Scotia against a strong head wind.

To Establish Communication

The destroyers will put out from Boston with orders to establish radio communication with the dirigible as quickly as possible and also to keep in touch with the Otter Cliff, Maine, wireless station.

The message to the air ministry which was intercepted at the Otter Cliff naval station, said:

"Flying across Nova Scotia. Strong head wind. Petrol beginning to get short. (Signed) "Commanding Officer."

The message to the navy department, signed by Commander Zachary Lansdown, U. S. N., for the commander of the dirigible, follows:

"To navy department, Washington, and commandant second naval district, Boston. Could destroyer proceed if required to southern end of bay of Fundy and take His Majesty's airship R-34 in tow?"

POSITION DEFINITELY REPORTED

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Halifax, N. S., July 5.—A wireless message received by admiralty officials here at 12:30 o'clock stated that the R-34 was at the south end of the Bay of Fundy between Yarmouth and the Grand Manan.

LOST IN FOG

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, July 5.—At noon today the huge British dirigible R-34, wrapped in the folds of mist that shrouded the Nova Scotia coast was striving to guide her course by fitful wireless communication with a score of stations and warships along the North Atlantic littoral.

The eager listeners on shore could hear her electric signals but British admiralty officials and American army aviation officers agreed that the wireless apparatus of the dirigible must have become damaged, for while they could hear her signals they were apparently unable to communicate with her.

On Way 86 Hours

The last definite word of the position of the airship up to midday was a wireless message saying she was cruising between Halifax and Canso and that "all is well." Canso is a little Nova Scotian town about 140 miles north of Halifax and about 750 miles from New York as the crow flies.

At that time it was approximately 86 hours since the mammoth airship had soared over Edinburgh and started on her western voyage. In the intervals she had travelled an estimated distance of 2,350 miles, but this total probably would be materially increased on account of losing her course through fog.

The first word of her arrival over the western hemisphere came from Notre Dame bay, one of the great inlets on the north Newfoundland coast, at 4:30 a. m. New York time, yesterday morning. In a rift in the eternal fog that binds that northern shore the huge mass of the air liner was seen for a brief space and then the mists closed upon her again.

DEMPSEY WINS FIGHT WHEN WILLARD QUILTS EXHAUSTED IN THIRD

Youthful Challenger for Heavyweight Title
Lead Fighting.

By Associated Press Special Wire
Ringside, Toledo, July 4.—Jack Dempsey in three bloody rounds during which the issue was never in doubt attained the world's premier fistie championship by defeating Jess Willard. The first round Dempsey sent home a body blow from which the big fellow never recovered. The gong alone saved him from defeat in this round, for with swollen cheeks, right eye closed, Dempsey knocked him down or threw him helplessly against the ropes, seven times. Dempsey thought he had won when the gong sounded and had to be brought into the ring. Willard who towered above his antagonist like a lighthouse over a tug, acted like a sick man. He was beaten and knew it.

He swung wildly and feebly while his relentless antagonist pounded home blows like a great riveting machine. There were cries of "stop it," "stop it," "it's murder."

Willard's Statement

Willard said: "In the first round when Dempsey hit me with a left hook I tried hard to continue, but I was rapidly losing my strength. My eye was closed at the end of the third round and I realized that it would be useless for me to continue, as I could hardly see. It's hard to admit defeat, but Dempsey is the hardest puncher I ever faced."

Dempsey's Manager Talks
Jack Kearns, manager for the new champion, said: "Jack is a real champion. He knocked Willard out twice. They gave us the fight in the first round, then brought us back with the bell and Jack got him again in the third. Dempsey will be a popular champion."

Dempsey's Story
Dempsey said: "I told you I would knock him out in the first round, and to all intents and purposes that is what I did. He took a lot of punishment in the next two rounds, but was so feeble that I hated to have to hit him."

ROUND ONE

Willard landed the first blow, a light left to the head. The champion landed a right and left to the head. Dempsey hooked a left to Willard's stomach. Dempsey snapped a left to the head. Dempsey knocked Willard down with a slam to the jaw twice. The champion took a count of six each time and when he got up Dempsey knocked him down with lefts and rights to the jaw. The challenger tore into him and knocked him down for a third knock down, flooring him with rights and lefts to the chin. It was the end of the round that saved Willard.

SECOND ROUND

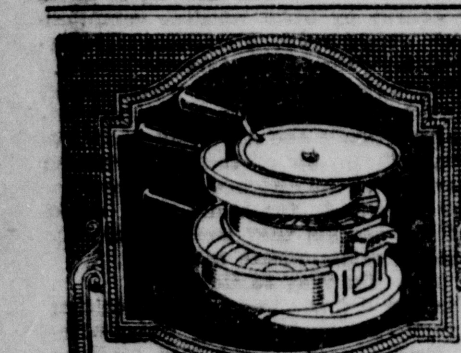

Dempsey rushed Willard in his corner hitting him with rights and lefts. The champion's right eye was closing from the blows Dempsey landed. Dempsey walked around Willard carefully measuring him with rights and lefts to the jaw. Willard seemed dazed. Dempsey put three lefts to the bad eye.

Willard landed a feeble upper cut. Willard's eye was rapidly closing. Dempsey had to be called back into the ring for the second round because he thought he had won the fight. Willard staggered to his corner at the end of the second round.

ROUND THREE

Dempsey hit Willard twice with lefts to the jaw. Dempsey sent right to jaw and left to body. Dempsey peppering lefts to Willard's jaw without a return. Dempsey backed the champion to the ropes and hammered him with lefts and rights to the jaw and body. Dempsey put a right and left to the head and had the blood streaming from the champion's mouth. Willard landed a stinging uppercut to Dempsey's jaw and Dempsey retaliated with a left to the jaw. The challenger, unmarked, was covered with blood which poured from Willard's mouth. Dempsey hit the champion right and left to the jaw as the bell rang, at the end of the third round.

Wilson Says Fourth Most Tremendous in History of Country

By Associated Press Leased Wire

On Board the U. S. S. George Washington, Friday, July 4.—(By Wire to the Associated Press.)—"This is the most tremendous Fourth of July ever imagined, for we have opened its franchise to the whole world," said President Wilson in a stirring speech to soldiers and sailors massed on the deck of the presidential steamer this afternoon.

The men gave Mr. Wilson three cheers and as he appeared among them and began his address by greeting them as "my fellow citizens" it was a striking picture, with several thousand khaki-clad doughboys and blue-jacketed sailors crowding the decks, lifeboats and riggings and with the president, bareheaded and earnest in their midst.

His theme was "the new and enlarged meaning of the Fourth of July" and the war has born America's message of liberty and independence to the remotest corners of the earth. He spoke of the future to America and said: "You cannot earn a reputation like that and not live up to it."

"Yes—she has improved wonderfully and yet there seemed little room for improvement," Everett replied slowly. "She is one of the most charming women I know."

"Barton drank himself to death I heard."

"I don't know as to that; but Irma certainly had a lot to stand for him. I admire the way she kept her own counsel. I never have heard that she ever made a complaint."

"Oh, she's a game sport, all right!" They then changed the subject and talked of the stock market and of business in which I had no interest. I wondered idly who this Irma Barton was and where she lived, and if she were as pretty as Mr. Halliday seemed to think.

I longed to know some of Everett's friends, and had no doubt that when we were settled in our home that they would also be my friends.

Argentina Favorable,

It is reported that the senate is in favor of Argentina joining the league.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS.

SANDRA DINES WITH MR. HALLIDAY.

CHAPTER XXII.

We went to a very attractive restaurant for dinner. We had not been long seated when Mr. Halliday came in. To my surprise Everett asked him to join us; which he did with profuse thanks for the invitation.

Why did Everett ask him to join us after the way he had spoken of him? It seemed strange to me and I expect I was more than a little absorbed in trying to adjust things in my mind, and so was not a very interesting companion.

Because the first thing I knew Everett and his guest were talking of people of whom I never had heard.

"She is lovelier than ever!" Mr. Halliday said.

"Yes—she has improved wonderfully and yet there seemed little room for improvement," Everett replied slowly. "She is one of the most charming women I know."

"Barton drank himself to death I heard."

"I don't know as to that; but Irma certainly had a lot to stand for him. I admire the way she kept her own counsel. I never have heard that she ever made a complaint."

"Oh, she's a game sport, all right!" They then changed the subject and talked of the stock market and of business in which I had no interest. I wondered idly who this Irma Barton was and where she lived, and if she were as pretty as Mr. Halliday seemed to think.

I longed to know some of Everett's friends, and had no doubt that when we were settled in our home that they would also be my friends.

I was really anxious to reach Hendon. I knew from what Everett had said that he must have a nice home, and it was to be my home. I knew I should miss nothing of shops and theaters in going to Hendon, and in addition I should be in my wonderful home and be able to write Rose about it.

Several days afterward when Everett went out in the morning he remarked casually:

"I shall be engaged all day, so don't expect me to luncheon."

"I may go for a walk, mayn't I?" I asked.

"Yes—I guess you'll know enough to find your way back."

"Of course I will!" and I kissed him rather enthusiastically.

I had walked for over an hour, and was standing in front of a most attractive store window when I heard a voice say:

"I am in luck indeed. Won't you take pity on me and lunch with me, Mrs. Graham?" and Mr. Halliday, Everett's friend, smiled down at me.

I was wholly unprepared for this invitation, and flushed and hesitated. I tried to formulate a graceful answer to his invitation, but the words would not come. I found myself being piloted along the street for a few steps, and into the door of a prominent restaurant.

Even after I was seated I was still confused, and had it not been for the tactful way in which Mr. Halliday ignored me, and gave the order, so giving me time to recover myself, I think I should have run from the table. But with the first course, delicious oysters, I felt more at ease, after all he was Everett's friend, why should I be so nervous about lunching with him; so I bashfully tried to tell him that I never had been in a public place without Everett, and that was the reason I had hesitated.

"Oh, Graham won't care—at least what is sauce for the goose should be sauce for the gander. And it is no secret that he does not hesitate to lunch with whom he pleases."

"But he is married now—he will."

"Go right on doing as he pleases. You are not to live in a country town little lady. Morals in New York and in Lakeville are entirely a different affair. Then he went on to tell me of several people he knew, their mode of living, etc.

Absorbed, I leaned forward. Had I been older, more accustomed to the world I should have taken his chatter for what it was worth, and nothing more. But I had just asked him about Irma Barton, when he said:

"What did I tell you?"

I looked up just in time to see Everett and another man walk to a corner table, and sit down, his broad back toward me.

To Be Continued.

IRELAND HAS AMERICA'S SYMPATHY.

At a meeting of Friends of Irish Freedom the other day, one of the leaders spoke of some of the conditions which bear hard upon the Irish people under their present government. He mentioned particularly excessive taxation, railroad rate discrimination and denial of the right to carry on foreign and domestic commerce as permitted by laws framed for the benefit of England.

Here is something definite. This is "getting down to brass tacks." It gives the American people something they can understand and appreciate in the way of current Irish wrongs.

The ordinary Irish propaganda, including nearly all the utterances of Mr.
De Valera, have this defect—they are little more than eloquent, high-sounding generalities. They celebrate, over and over again, the ancient theme of "Irishland's wrongs" without specifying what those wrongs are. They result in absurd misconceptions. They win the ill-informed by their emotional appeal, but tend to alienate many intelligent people who know something of the development of Ireland in late years under a somewhat more liberal British rule.

Certainly the Irish do not suffer from "taxation without representation," as our revolutionary forefathers did. Ireland is, and has long been, amply represented in the British parliament which imposes taxes. She is said to have a larger representation per capita than has England, Scotland or Wales.

The old, oppressive system of Irish landlordism has been changed in the last twenty years, under legislation which is rapidly turning Ireland into a nation of small, independent proprietors. Suffrage is as free in Ireland as elsewhere.

Many of the woes which are regarded as a traditional heritage of Ireland no longer exist. There seems to be little of the bloody tyranny of olden days.
Everybody knows that, when Ireland objected to conscription for this war, it was not enforced there as in other parts of the British Isles. The revolutionary Sinn Fein movement has not been crushed by military force, as similar movements were in the past.

All this might properly be admitted by Irish patriots, probably with gain to their cause, if they would couple the admissions with plain, clear explanations of Ireland's present concrete grievances, which are mostly economic.

In spite of all these improvements in the condition of Ireland and the Irish under continued British rule, the average American will still believe that Ireland should be free. Every American would rejoice to see Ireland free. But the American citizen at this moment is asking himself what present pretext has this nation to demand of England the freedom of Ireland? Wilson's fourteen points are set up as such pretext, but this Wilsonian creed lacks the force of law, national or international. It likewise lacks Wilsonian insistence, for instance in the case of Shantung, which the peace treaty wrests away from China and delivers over to Japan, even though Chinese were assured that should they enter the war against the Teutons, as they did, they would be given fair treatment.

We all want to see a free and independent Ireland. And there is no doubt that should it come to pass at any time in the future that England should resort to old-time exploitation and tyranny in Ireland, this nation would enter a meaningful protest, as it did to Spain in the case of Cuba. But such a development is unlikely. The trend is all the other way.

WILLARD'S DEFEAT IS SUBJECT OF ARGUMENT
IN SPORTING CIRCLES

When Was He Really Out
Is Question — Toledo Deserted Today.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Toledo, July 5.—Though a new heavyweight champion has been crowned in Jack Dempsey, and the exodus of fight fans has depopulated Toledo hotels, controversy still rages over the sensational defeat of Jess Willard here late yesterday afternoon. So many unusual angles developed during the nine minutes terrific fistic bombardment that scarcely two spectators saw the scene the same. The uncertainty regarding the situation at the end of the first round when Dempsey left the ring believing that he had won with a knockout, and the payment of such wagers as hinged on when Willard was stopped, furnished unlimited material for argument.

Gong Was Weak
So weak was the sound of the gong
and so great the uproar about the ring, that Referee Peacor failed to hear the bell and continued to count over Willard as he sat on the ring floor near a neutral corner, although Time Keeper Barbour ordered the clang when Peacor's arm was falling for the seventh time. The referee notified Dempsey that he had won, and the Salt Lake City pugilist was well on his way to his dressing room before his manager overtook him and told him that he was in danger of being disqualified on a technicality for leaving the ring.

Dempsey Won in Third
The question of which round Dempsey won his title was placed before several veteran ring officials by men who had wagers at stake and the consensus was that Dempsey stopped Willard in the third round, as the latter's seconds tossed the towel of defeat into the center of the ring before the bell rang for the beginning of the fourth session. The same veterans pointed out several other interesting features. They stated that it was the first time that a heavyweight champion had ever admitted defeat without leaving his chair, as well as the shortest heavyweight championship combat of modern ring history.

Dempsey Gets Ovation
In other respects the first few hours after the battle were much the same as those following the passing of past titles. Dempsey was soon dressed and much in evidence about the downtown section, followed by a wildly enthusiastic and cheering throng of admirers.
When he appeared for dinner at the leading hotel the corridors were a mass of swarming spectators who peeked at Willard's conqueror as he broke training and dined in a manner entirely different from the simple menus of the past two months.

Willard's Injuries Light
At the same hour his detracted opponent was resting in his temporary home in a residential section, with his battered head packed in ice bags, and cut off from communication with the outside world by a guard that even the telephone could not penetrate. He was examined by the boxing commission physician however soon after his return from the ring. The latter stated officially that Willard was not seriously injured, and would be able to appear in public as soon as his bruises and other marks of battle had yielded to ordinary treatment. These bruises mostly superficial were impressive during the fight and caused great consternation in the ladies' box at the far edge of the arena
where more than a hundred women were the special guests of the promoters and pinch-hits.

Dempsey in Vaudeville
Neither boxer had made any definite plans for leaving the city early today but it is expected that Dempsey would depart within the next 48 hours in order to fulfill a vaudeville engagement, offered him in case he was the winner. Willard had originally planned to go to New York to discuss certain business plans immediately after the bout, but what effect the upset will have upon this arrangement could not be learned early today. In this connection it can be said so confident was Willard that he would defeat Dempsey that he completed preliminary plans to organize a moving picture company and star in a series of film dramas in which his ring prowess would be of great value.
The blows of his more youthful opponent are believed to have shattered this scheme as they did the championship claims of the conqueror of Jack Johnson.

WM. TOOT, VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR, DEAD

Word was received here this morning of the death of William Toot, for many years a resident of Dixon and well known in this vicinity. Mr. Toot passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. Sneed in Chicago about midnight last night, following illness of several weeks duration.
He was a prominent member of the Dixon post G. A. R., and before going to Chicago to make his home, was quite active here. The body will be brought to Dixon Monday morning at 10 o'clock and taken to the Preston funeral chapel. Services will be conducted from the chapel at 2:30 in the afternoon, the local G. A. R. post being in charge both the chapel and at the grave. Burial will take place in Oakwood.
Beside a host of friends, Mr. Toot leaves to mourn his passing, one daughter, Mrs. F. Sneed, of Chicago, and one son, Frank Toot. His wife preceded him in death several years ago.

ARE SOLD RECENTLY

Tracts in That Vicinity

Big Money.

Ashton—The largest sum of money ever paid in this locality for a farm was paid by Supervisor Charles Heibenthal for the Sarah George farm west of this city recently. Mr. Heibenthal paid $300.00 per acre for the 197 acre farm.
This farm is well improved and lays a chicago & Northwestern tracks. There are two houses on the farm and the value of the land cannot be beaten in this part of the state. Mrs. George gives possession the first of March, 1920. At the present Mrs. George has not made any definite plans for the future.
The past week Wesley Wagner sold his small farm of 22½ acres of land
just north of the cemetery to Lincoln

Shumway, who lives on the George Griffith farm southeast of town, for $315 per acre. That is one of the highest prices ever paid for a farm in this part of the country. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner will give possession the first of March, 1920, but Mr. Shumway expects to farm the Griffith place another year they may not leave until they have their new residence built on their lot in Richardson addition. Land in this locality has been increasing in value
very rapidly the past few years.

A big deal was closed Tuesday afternoon when the Ashton Sheep Yards owned by Messrs. Knapp & Smith was sold to William G. Krug of Bradford township for $3000 per acre. There are 289 acres of land in the tract. Mr. Krug will take possession the first of March, 1920 and will conduct the sheep yards.
His son Roy who is employed by the government will come home and help with the work. It is Mr. Krug's thought that he will continue to buy stock as has been the custom at the yards since Messrs. Knapp & Smith have been the proprietors.

Messrs. Knapp & Smith have made a number of improvements in the Sheep yards and have built a good business in the past few years that they have had the sheep business in this city. Mr.
Krug is one of Bradford's foremost farmers and will make a good man in that business.

Last Thursday Clinton Myers north of town bought the farm belonging to Andrew Fell of Rochelle for $275 per acre. There is 110 acres in the farm and it lays 4 miles north of this city.
Mr. Myers took possession last week.
Another deal was closed recently by William Quick when he sold the farm where Fred Beach resides to Mr. R. G.
Johnson of Amboy. Mr. Johnson is a brother in law of Fred J. Kersten south of town and takes possession March 1, 1920.

FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD LITIGATION SETTLED

Suits of Godfrey vs. Owners of Power Rights Are Dismissed.

The recording of a number of deeds and releases of damages and the dismissal of three law suits pending in the Circuit Court of Lee County on Thursday afternoon marks the end of long litigation with respect to the ownership of the Dixon dam and water power. About 15 years ago and soon after the present dam at Dixon was built a number of lawsuits were brought by Katherine, Grace and William C. Godfrey in assertion of their claim of ownership to certain interests in the dam and water power.

Afterwards other actions were brought presenting different phases of the controversy. Several of the cases have been tried and been to the Supreme court, with varying results. Three suits were still pending in the Circuit court of Lee County at the time final settlement was made.

Negotiations were begun more than a year ago with a view of making a final adjustment of the matter in controversy and terms were finally agreed upon. The amount paid in settlement has not been made public.

Convey All Power Rights.
The papers recorded at the recorder's today are signed by all of the Godfrey heirs and convey to Illinois Northern Utilities company a 6-7 interest and to Reynolds Wire Co. a 1-7 interest in 14 different tracts of land or of property interests in or appurtenant to the dam and water power. There are also releases of damages of flowage rights to premises above the dam and of the right to build and maintain transmission lines over various tracts. The pending suits were also dismissed, among them being a suit to require the dam owners to take down the concrete wall at the south end of the dam and also a suit for damages in which a verdict for $20,000 was obtained at a trial before a jury and the judgment in which was afterwards reversed by the Supreme court.

Many attorneys have been engaged in this litigation from time to time among them being the late William Barge and also H. A. Brooks, A. C. Bardwell, E. E. Wingert, E. H. Brewster, Henry S. Dixon and Clyde Smith.

With the disposition of these suits and the recording of the deeds the title to the premises is now vested without controversy in the Illinois Utilities Co. and Reynolds Wire Co.

Americans on Rhine Hold Great Program on Nation's Birthday

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Coblenz, Friday, July 4.—(Delayed)—A salute of 48 guns—one for each state in the union—flashed out over Coblenz at noon today from the ancient walls of the fortress of Ehrenbreitstein, echoing up and down the Rhine and Moselle valleys as the first part of the army's program in celebrating the fourth in Germany.

This was the first time that American artillery has barked from the famous fortress which tops the 400 foot rock promontory on the east bank of the Rhine opposite the point where the Moselle joins Germany's most famous river. The salute was fired from 75's of the Seventeenth Field Artillery and the roar of the same guns was heard before by Germans who opposed the second division at St. Mihiel, in the Champagne and in the battle of the Argonne. The salvo today, however, did not disturb the Germans as the army's plans were well advertised in the newspapers.

Everybody Celebrated
The fourth was celebrated throughout the American occupied area today, all duty being suspended except what was absolutely necessary. The afternoon was filled with athletic activities such as boxing, track meets and ball games and the evening was devoted to theatrical performances and pyrotechnic displays at the headquarters of various units. For the Coblenz district, Ehrenbreitstein was again the center of attraction in the evening, the seventh field artillery putting on an exhibition of fireworks surpassing anything ever dreamed of by the Germans. American, French, English and even German fireworks were used, consisting of colored rockets, parachute lights and flares which were used at night as signals in warfare. Rockets abandoned by the Germans after the armistice were used in this way.

The fourth engineers also staged a fireworks display on the east bank of the Rhine opposite army headquarters here, thousands of Americans and civilians lining the promenade along the river to watch the blaze of glory in celebration of American independence.

SECOND MARY IS CONTENTED WITH UNCLE JIM

Tells Chicago Tribune Home Near Amboy Suits Her.

The Chicago Tribune of this morning contained the following item of interest to Lee county people:

Remember Mary Smith, the Chicago girl who four year ago went down to Amboy to live with Mr. and Mrs. James A. Pankhurst, on the promise of inheritance $10,000 upon the death of "Uncle Jimmie"?

Well, that Mary married, and didn't wait for the $10,000. Another Mary's on the job, Mary Brackus—and she dropped in yesterday to see Mark Crawford, director of the United States Employment service.

She brought Mr. Crawford Uncle Jimmie's regards and the statement that he had found her more than acceptable as a substitute for the fickle first candidate for the $10,000.

"Never happier in my life," she said, "and you can bet there are no love affairs on my horizon. The Pankhursts are enough for me, and I hope I can be of some comfort to them in this twilight of their lives. We have a good time down on the farm. Come and see us."

Miss Brackus went to join the family two years ago. She was born in Serbia, but has been an American for about eight years.

DIXON'S MAYOR IS UNDER ARREST ON ASSAULT CHARGE

The Mayor stopped the meeting when the speaker made some statement concerning the opportunity of children of the working classes entering the high schools of the country, and he refused to permit Owens to continue.

The executive told The Telegraph this morning that he stood and listened to the speaker quietly until he stated that the chairman of the poorer classes were unable to attend high school, but were forced to get employment, which was a condition the employers wanted. At that Mayor Smith says he stepped forward with the remark "You're through." When Owens and leaders among the Dixon Socialists pressed forward, remonstrating, the Mayor says he informed them that as long as he was Mayor of Dixon no one could publicly incite class hatred, and therefore he would not permit the meeting to continue.

Socialists' Side.

Local Socialists, who spent the morning considering the advisability of starting legal proceedings against the head of the city government, stated to The Telegraph that Edgar Owens, the speaker, had merely cited some statistics from a report of the Industrial Commission to the effect that but fourteen per cent of the children in public schools enter high schools, attributing the condition to the fact that the children have to enter industrial pursuits to swell the family income sufficiently to maintain the homes.

When the speaker had cited these figures, the Socialists say, the Mayor stepped forward with the remark "You're a liar," and he continued by saying, according to Socialistic information given in this paper, that there was no room in Dixon for "long-haired orators," and that if this speaker in particular kept up his harangue he would give him a nice place to sleep in the city jail.

Following the Mayor's refusal to allow Owens to continue, the meeting dispersed and the party leaders retired to consider proper methods of retaliation.

Woman's Suffrage is Still Big Issue in British Parliament

By Associated Press Leased Wire

London, Friday, July 4.—(Delayed)—The woman's emancipation bill is still before the house of commons, notwithstanding an effort by the government today to have it set aside to make way for a new measure on subject. Major Waldorf Astor's motion to reject it was defeated by a vote of 100 to 85. The bill, backed by the labor party, has been before the commons for several months.

Before the motion to reject was offered, Major Astor announced the government planned to introduce a substitute next week. This alternative measure, he said, would place women on a equality with men in civil and judicial matters and would be wide and comprehensive.

Confidence in the government, it was understood, probably would not be considered as having been at stake in the vote on the motion.

The emancipation bill now before the house of commons was designed to give women political and legal equality with men. It included a provision permitting women to sit in the house of lords. A London dispatch received Friday was so garbled in transmission as to make it appear that the bill itself had been defeated.

Square its price against Goodrich List Prices on the short branch of THE SQUARE.

Square its mileage adjustment against the Goodrich More-Mileage Adjustment on the long branch of THE SQUARE. 6,000 miles for Fabrics; 8,000 for Silvertown Cords.

SAVE THE CHILDREN

The mothers of the Twentieth century will go down into history as being true patriots. They have tearfully, ungrudgingly and bravely given of their own flesh and blood that true Democracy might prevail throughout the world and that the strong arm of Imperialism should be shattered once and for all. When this war is won it will be said, in more ways than one, that it was won by the Mothers of the country.

But you mothers, who have sent your dear boys "over there" to fight for world-wide liberty, also have a duty to perform with reference to the babes in your arms and your sons and daughters of tender age. Do you know that not very long ago, at the Y. M. C. A. at Kansas City fifteen hundred boys were examined and fifty per cent of them were found to have some form of spinal trouble? If those boys had been examined by a competent Chiropractor when they were yet infants, these faults could have been corrected.

If your little baby is sick, weak, puny or not properly developed in some part of the body there must be a Cause and nine times out of ten it is found in the spine. Do not wait with the expectation that the baby will outlive the weakness; have the spine palpated and if necessary adjusted. Many a boy, many a girl has gone to a premature grave or lingered through life a miserable cripple when a Spinal Analysis made in infancy would have detected some weakness which Chiropractic Adjustments would have corrected.

Nature is the only true Healer. Spinal Adjustments eliminate the cause of the trouble and Mother Nature heals. You say, "Oh, yes, that's a beautiful theory, but like all other beautiful theories, it's too good to be true." It is not only a beautiful theory, but it is beautifully true, as the thousands of men and women who have been helped will attest any day.

"Save the Children." The children of today will be the men and women of tomorrow. You can do this by safeguarding their health while they are still in your arms.

SAGE TEA DARKENS
HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to proper action; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Today's Market Report

(By Associated Press Leased Wire)

NO GRAIN QUOTATION
There were no grain quotations today because of no session of the boards of trade.

Weekly Grain Review.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, July 5.—Corn prices have aimed at the zenith, this week influenced largely by the fact that the value of hogs rose again and again above all previous records. Compared with a week ago, corn quotations today are 8 1/2 to 9 1/2 c up, oats have gained 1c to 2 1/2 c and provisions 80c to $2.40.

Although the effect of the signing of the peace treaty seemed at first to have been fully discounted by the corn trade, it soon became evident that one of the most vital aspects was still to be dealt with. Indications that export business in provisions would be enlarged were quickly reflected by urgent demand for hogs, a demand which in turn lifted sharply the cost of corn. Besides, rainless hot weather was a source of anxiety, while at the same time, broadening out of European demand seemed to have virtually put out of question any likelihood of big shipments of corn to the United States from Argentina. Feverish buying of corn here was the result until holidays forced a stop.

An unlooked for increase of the visible supply prevented oats from sympathizing more with the advance of corn. Jumps in provisions were in response to the export outlook and to the record smashing behavior of the hog market.

GERMANY READY TO BEGIN PAYING FOR WAR DAMAGE

By Associated Press Leased Wire
PARIS, July 5.—Germany has indicated her desire to begin immediately her compliance with the terms of the peace treaty regarding reparations. Her request for oral conferences of German economic experts with allied experts has been granted.

The conferences will be begun early next week.

A permanent reparations commission has not yet been appointed by the allies. Until it is constituted the commission which had been created to name various conference commissions will act in the German negotiations. The American member of this commission is John Foster Dulles. The fact that these negotiations will be personal marks the new status of the relations between Germany and the allies.

DIXON BALLOONIST FELL INTO RIVER

Andrew Owens, Dixon's one-armed balloonist, had a trying experience in his ascension at Sterling last evening when he fell into the middle of Rock river, just east of the government dam at the foot of Tenth avenue, eight blocks from the point he went up. He made a perfect ascension but was tossed about most uncomfortably by the high winds, and was unable to prevent alighting in the stream. He managed to swim ashore, dragging his parachute with him. His balloon also fell into the "creek" and was rescued by fishermen.

DIXON GOLFERS WON

The party of golfers from the Dixon Country club who went to Princeton on Thursday and engaged the Bureau County club, were victors by a score of 21 to 19. The day was ideal for the match play and several went from Dixon by auto to present.

The Bureau County club members proved themselves to be royal entertainers and a general good time was enjoyed by all who made the trip.
